RE: Patent Application 09/833,847
Inventor: B.C. Hornady
Given Name of Inventor

Dear Ms. Pinkney:

The inventor in the above-identified applicant is commonly known by his initials, "B.C." The US Patent Office has requested designation of the given name for which at least one of these initials stands. The inventor advises, in response to this request, that the "B" stands for "Burnett." An appropriate listing of the inventor therefore would be "Burnett C. Hornady."

I hope that this satisfies your inquiry. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Yours very truly,

Nathan W. Johnson
